Foroutan of Lender Home Page. The new websites have a clean, uncluttered design, improve functionality and offers quick and easy access to essential information. From application through funding, Mountain West Financial clients will have a seamless and secured online and mobile experience thus cutting the process down in time and increasing the transparency and communication during the loan process. “Mountain West Financial is committed to consistently improving our technology to make the loan process faster, easier, and more efficient for our loan officers and clients,” said John F. Cady, SVP Production at Mountain West Financial, Inc. To enhance the site’s infrastructure, LenderHomePage.com also integrated with LendingQB enabling borrowers to easily follow the real-time status of their loan and contact their loan officer through one centralized portal. You can read more about the integration here. The new websites went live on August 7, 2017 and the feedback has been positive from both end users and Loan Officers.
